

FACTS ABOUT FLUORIDE

In 1951, the first city in PA began fluoridating water to the optimal level for public health

Fluoridated water prevents one out of every four cavities in children and adults

Number of reputable international health and science organizations that recognize the public health benefit of fluoride

41 of the 50 largest U.S. cities, including Philadelphia, provide fluoridated public water

Residents receiving the benefits of fluoridated water

Pennsylvania

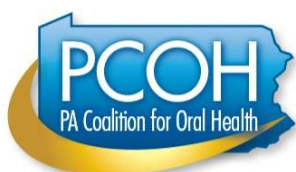

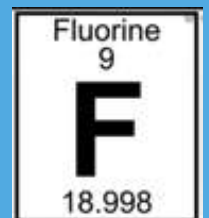

United States

Estimated dental savings per person annually from drinking fluoridated water

Years of research and experience prove fluoridation is safe for people and the environment

Fluoride is a natural mineral that exists in lakes, rivers, oceans, and groundwater

Leading Change for Oral Health in Pennsylvania

www.paoralhealth.org

July 2020